FIREARMS AND WEAPONS POLICY

Policy Statement:

All members of the Salve Regina University community, as well as visitors, are strictly prohibited from possessing firearms, explosives or weapons (hereafter referred to as “weapons”) on the premises of the University. Possession, display, transportation, manufacture, use, sale, or distribution of these “weapons” that may endanger the welfare of individuals or the community, on University premises are prohibited other than in strict compliance with the exceptions contained below.

Policy:

Salve Regina University is committed to maintaining a safe and secure environment to conduct educational and research activities. This policy is a proactive step towards reducing the risk of injury or death associated with intentional or accidental use of weapons.

All faculty, staff, students and visitors to the University are strictly prohibited from possessing firearms, ammunition for any caliber of firearm, explosives or weapons (hereafter referred to as “weapons”) on the premises of the University without the explicit advance authorization of the University through the Director of Public Safety and Community Relations or his designee, regardless of whether a federal or state license to possess the same has been issued to the possessor. The only exceptions to this policy are as follows:

EXCEPTIONS:

- 1. Sworn - Federal, State and Local law enforcement officers including retired law enforcement officers under the Law Enforcement Officers Safety Act of 2004 (LEOSA) and 18 USC 926c which allows qualified retired law enforcement officers to carry and possess weapons, to the extent they are legally permitted and qualified, in the jurisdiction in which the University premises are located and on the premises of the University in such jurisdiction.
- 2. Persons authorized by their employer, and duly licensed and legally permitted under the laws of the jurisdiction in which they are located to possess weapons, (such as employees of armored car services that collect or transport cash, checks, valuables, etc.) may do so on the premises of the University in such jurisdiction while performing their duties with respect to the University in an official capacity. Such persons performing these duties will be identified by the University as vendors and a list of those vendors will be provided to the Director of Public Safety and Community Relations.
- 3. Persons in the military while in performance of their official duties to the extent they are legally permitted to possess weapons in the jurisdiction in which they are located may do so on the premises of the University in such jurisdiction. Written notification must be made by the individual carrying the firearm to the Director of Public Safety and Community Relations or his designee in a timely manner.
- 4. Faculty or staff legally permitted to possess weapons in the jurisdiction in which they are located may do so on the premises of the University in such jurisdiction if they are part of an approved academic or research activity only. Persons subject to this exemption must obtain the explicit advance authorization of the University by making written notification to the Director of Public Safety and Community Relations or his designee in a timely manner and in advance of the activity.
- 5. University sanctioned groups or events where a particular weapon(s) is a required part of the curriculum or activity, for example, martial arts classes/clubs; fencing classes/clubs; theatrical events, etc. Persons subject to this exemption must obtain the explicit advance authorization of the University by making written notification to the Director of Public Safety and Community Relations or his designee in a timely manner prior to the event, which authorization may be denied or approval may be subject to conditions.
